As Salamu Aleykum,

Dear Meelika,

I pray this letter finds you & the children well & under Allah's protection. I enjoyed the visit & especially how well they are doing it is a testimony of you as a mother. The fact Jamal invited you to his college to speak during Black History Month shows the love & respect he has for you. Good also to hear he's teaching others knowledge of self. That area when he goes to school has Klan activity so it was right not giving him the car around there.

Enclosed is a general outline of the things I mentioned the other day, also copy of survey. The person recording the answers must record each answer and keep a number of the people so that the overall responses can be analyzed. I will send Safiya a copy also.

Have Asbenti talk to Akil as well as give him some classes. He must try to make him more conscious so as to be more sensitive with the sisters.

The poem was very nice I received it that night. I would like to see what you're writing whenever possible. Geneva say a few words to J. & get back into my books, Inshallah at the end of this semester I'll have 93 credits & with C in the summer put me a year away from a b.a. Inshallah. Take care, give me some feedback on these things.

Sincerely Maas Salam
Nick

I am told the pigs ramped on Abded Monday & he was beaten & kicked. Getting back into a spiritual vibe would be good for you.
