

NOTES FROM L-16.

L-16

ANS. 18 APPENDIX "B"

- p.1 "... added advantage of NOT USING SCHOOL TO SMALL FOR ECONOMICAL OPERATION OR TOO LARGE FOR EFFICIENT EDUCATIONAL ADMINISTRATION" Godwin
- p.4 " Many closely placed separate buildings, where fewer and larger schools could serve, obviously makes for higher construction costs, higher operating costs, higher maintenance costs and higher school administration costs. Godwin
- p.5. 400 - 600 = GOOD SCHOOL
- p.6 Crestview site donated by land developer George Emery because he "realized the site would be much more attractive to buyers if it had a school"
- p.7 [Stout] Valley Park site offered at low price to Topeka Bd. by Jayhawk Construction Co.
- p.9 " In other sections of the city ... redistricting ~~by~~ ... would be difficult because of history and tradition related to school boundaries" ... Godwin
- p.9. As conditions change and new schools are added. THE BOUNDARIES MUST CHANGE... ETC.
- p.9. + two portfolios @ BAOB.
- p.10. For 25 years prior to 1953 Topeka has had over crowded schools in the S.W. and under utilized schools in the inner city.
- p.10. Provisions for growth due to annexations was postponed [delayed] with schools in the center of the city.
- p.11. City buys school sites in advance of pupils
- p.12. Too many small schools cost city money.
- p.13. Advantage exists thru co-operation betwn. Topeka & Advantage school systems.