Sept 8th

Bismillah in Rahman in Raheem

As Salam Alaikum,
Beloved Wife,

Guess you've had the baby by now and hope you are brought doing well, May Allah protect you. Send you all but one picture + had it framed it's of you in the uniform in your Muslim clothes, i make salat 5 times a day and visualize that we (all of us) are making it together. Allah has been merciful towards me as i try to free myself from this hell hole, i pray He not leave my side for without Him surely would i be lost. There are contradictions among us here that are holding us back Inshallah they'll be overcome I had hoped to hear by now if the baby was a girl or boy. This evening has me kind of tired and i need to rap with someone, so that's the reason for this letter, people always say they have principle but they don't, they want respect but do nothing to earn it, at times i for see that some day i will be fighting my comrades of today because of the negative shit within them that will make them oppressors of tomorrow. Keep faith in Allah no matter how rough it may get and don't change your program to get along. The fight for truth & justice is not easy and at times lonely but persevere, be true to yourself. To have faith is the most important thing it's best not to openly demonstrate your belief because the negative forces will attack it. These last few months have been hell but with the grace of Allah i've come to see things in myself & others. One of my faults is had blind faith in people because they talked like me and my word has always been a sacred thing. You know I really want to be a man with a family and give what ever is in of myself, to be in tune with nature + feel Allah in the things I do, a world where people speak there hearts and treat others like they themselves want to be treated. Inshallah, I will see that world not as long as breathe flows in this body I will struggle for these things. How are the warriors doing, give them my love, it would like to hold your baby in my arms, I never held a small one before. Suppose to be in court tomorrow but Harman's not back yet, Joann went to Elmhurst General she's about due. Mike, Harold, & Henry start trial the 24th of Sept. I will escape successfully this time, I've got to much to do and so much to live for.

How are the comrades doing tell them I send my love, heard Dena split. It would be good to go over the reasons why we are struggling with the family so that everyone has a clear understanding, this knowledge, along with faith and the justness of our fight will sustain them in hard times. People must understand this is no joke or to be taken lightly. Give P.E. classes, it was you can do it.

In love & Struggle your Husband

A People

A people oppressed, have few friends
And at times don't even like each other
But I love them

If they want a champion to fight for them
I will fight not because I like fighting
But because I love them

A people oppressed say bitter things
And cry many tears

I know because "I am one of them"
And because of it "I love them more."
