Dear Mrs. King:

What a serendipity to have talked with you over the telephone! I just called my wife and told her that you asked about her and there are no words to express her elations.

As you suggested, I'm reminding you that we have tentatively agreed that you would speak at our Homecoming service on November 12, 1972 at 9:30 a.m., and in the event that you couldn't speak you would secure a substitute either Reverend Fauntroy or Reverend Young. Reverend Young has spoken to us several times and has done an excellent job.

We have already invited him for next Fall but we have never had Reverend Fauntroy and we would be highly pleased if he could come in the event you could not come, but it must be unmistakeably clear that you are the number one priority.

May God's choice blessings be upon you and your family and may it be his will that you are able to come.

Agape and Shalom,

Andrew L. Johnson
