Mr. C. G. Gomillion, Chairman
Division of Social Sciences
Tuskegee Institute, Alabama

Dear Mr. Gomillion:

As the year 1957 draws to a close, I want to thank you for the excellent contributions made by the Division of Social Sciences, through your leadership, to our total program.

The full strength of Tuskegee Institute must be brought to bear continually in the achievement of larger and finer opportunities for all citizens. Moreover, our teaching of young people must help them accept these opportunities in a spirit of responsible citizenship.

The measure of our success in achieving these goals is reflected through the success Tuskegee Institute has as it goes about its varied and highly important educational tasks.

Your leadership in helping set a climate of high standards, in inspiring your co-workers and students to effective performance, and in promoting a dedicated unity of spirit for our total program helps bring real strength to Tuskegee.

Thank you for your good work. Best wishes for a Happy New Year.

Sincerely yours,

L. H. Foster
President
