

To the Comrades:

Peace, freedom and revolutionary greetings.

On Thursday, July 2, 1981, Lil Malika, another sister and myself was somewhat strange in the rain in Brooklyn after having attended a rehearsal for the play that is being presented for ASATA. We were without money and I was having problem w/ my legs. We had for the past hours been trying to borrow money and get someone to take us home to Queens. Sister Nehanda showed up. I asked her if she could take us home. At first she said yes. Then after conferring w/ another Comrade she or they decided that they could take my home because she said that the sister was w/ me and that she could drive here in a under car. This I didn't understand at all because it is a fact that the sister drive the cars various different places and many different people know them who in fact are not part of the family and doing any progressive work.

I must say that I was very hurt and upset because first of all once the year I home w/ guess these

John Love - lately come along on their ego trip and get treat like general and commanders running around giving orders and leading comrades who have been in this struggle for years, comrades who honest suffered, paid dues and still struggling and paying dues, treating us like some robots. I've watched an elites group set themselves up as BKA without any understanding of the development of BKA or respect for those righteous soldiers, who fought, <sup>and</sup> die, ~~and~~ those soldiers who are spending their lives behind bars.
This small clique group give no respect to the families of those comrades, not only so there no respect or support given, many of you dont even concern yourselves w/ the fact that the comrades have families that need support and protection. What kind of Army is it that doesnt take care of it? What kind of Army is it that can spend thousands on Cocaine, when members of BKA families go hanging and are told constantly that there is no money.

The other day I had to defend myself against a racist cracken who actually got up to hit me. Had I kill this cracken, cause that's exactly what would have happened had he put his hands on me, any way

I referring to this because I thought that if my brother was somewhere near he would deal with this racist dog. but as it is he not and I feel that there is no one else to turn to. what kind of Army is it when it family members can be attacked by racist crackers. and nothing is done about it? what? Thursday I was suffering greatly w/ a leg injury. needed a ride to get to the clinic no concerned was shown I had to use my own wits to get there --- turning to strangers for help as is often the case. However these strangers have proven to be more comradely than what is suppose to be my family as is always the case.

July 18th you call for support for the people. You ask for support and help and yet you give neither to the people. You say you support the sister and yet you let her and set her up for father isolation. The people support Assata Shakur they support Abdul, they support Oscar Washington (I know some of you Johnny come lately dont know this brother just as you dont know many of our New Guinea warriors). This is just to name a few of the people that the people know ~~and support~~ love and support not because they set themselves up as an elite class calling themselves BLM but because they worked among the poor masses. all of you Johnny, come lately ppl of the reputation soldiers good work and some and yet you put them in further isolation because they don't be down w/ some of the incorrect ideas or attitudes that you display.

Over the years I've ~~seen~~ <sup>seen</sup> some of you, bullshit, vasilate while our comrades rot behind bars and their families suffer.

I oftentimes wonder what do you'll take the people for. People will support that which is a part of them that which work w/ and support them.
The real reason why you can't get any support from some people is because the ppl that the Mexicans such as Ahmed, Chino, these two brothers as good as you might think they are are not working organizing the masses on a day to day basis! you know why But I can call for ~~just~~ a conference and thousands show - it because they use the same facts that are in the BPP literature they have wkly Rallies (Community Mtgs) do heavy propaganda work

support and respect the people, Regardless of their political ideology they are doing the work while all you want to do is sit back like an elite class giving orders and criticized. These people help me get through a very rough time when the brother split while all you did was sit back and criticized me for trying to protect my family, trying to survive.

These people pull security for me and my family while you say that it's a security risk for you to do so. Some of the some people you criticized are the ones members of BKA have to turn to for any kind of support be it commissary money or just plain old moral support.

What fine any of you the right to think that you can call all the shots? Why can't you go to the various organizations regardless of political different and get their ideas on issues as oppose to presenting them with what you decide should be done and expecting them to just out right support it. It is not that people won't support the Army, it is the people, and the Methodology that is aze, that's what turn people off.
Y'all are just too damn arrogant and concerned w/out your cause to listen to anybody and eventually it's going to all back fire and it bad because you are doing these things in the name of our righteous policies, who are dead, in contact or force for order until they have no voices in determining what happens.

I think that a lot of these things happen because of ignorance but sometimes I wonder if it's just you might have someone among you who is not quite right. You are far removed from the people that's why the lack of support and should you keep on trying to call the shots for the masses you will further isolate yourselves and particularly the sisters.
