To: My Husband
This is a ~~task~~ to express my strive to do the right things and to become an unselfish person. Sometimes the thoughts of poverty
frighten me so much until I cling too tight to material things. This is a negative trait that I'd like to overcome.
If we'll ever going to make it together we both have to work together
helping each other.
Love
Malika
