Dear King:

I am writing to congratulate you on your article entitled: "Nonviolence and Racial Justice" which appeared in the "Christian Century" for February 6, 1957. It was well done and a contribution toward the understanding of non-violence as a means of resisting injustice. Those of us who believe in the Christian way pray for the continuation of your brilliant leadership in our great struggle for human freedom.

Please do not forget that we are expecting you to serve as our Religious Emphasis Week Speaker at Tuskegee Institute during the second week in January, 1958.

Best regards to Coretta.

Sincerely yours,

Daniel W. Wynn
