As Salāmu Alaikum wa Rahmatullahi wa barakatuhu
Ukhti Malika ;

And may this extension of Peace also find you and your household enjoying the best health and really appreciating the Most GRACIOUS Bounty and Mercy of Allah.
Alhamdulillah, the struggle intensifies.

Your face, voice, laughter, courage as I so vividly recall you, remains fresh; and those of your two strong men. But, the experiences, this long corridor of trials, growth bears witness that it has been 6 years past... I've seen the pictures Oscar received too.

Oscar says that they are taking you to court; ~~and~~ when I heard that you ~~might~~^{might} return home, I'd hope you'll get that off of your shoulders. Or at least probation.

Me and Ashanti (Mike) also had a N.Y. indictment, but they threw it out almost two years ago... I guess it has been that long. Anyway, you've carried A tremendous burden over the years.

Someone should help you in this. So, that you can acquire somekind of relief. I know that it must have been hard with the responsibility with the children and all. OF course, They in their love you and each other, eased the PAINS. But, they'll need your nearness, guidance and care too.

UkhTi. JAMILA (my beautiful Sister) we're proud of you... in your boldness and determination; And for these reasons we fear for you, because we love you so much. May Allah Guide you straight.

In Struggle,
Walid
