

Progress

Have you been to the zoo lately
And notice the animals are put in open spaces?
They say it's because wild beast do not like confinement
Psychologist believe the animals develop mental disorders.
They stop eating, develop complexes, and beg out.
So now they are allowed to roam on preserve ground
To mate and exercise
Still not free, but reliefs the stress.
Only in America are animals giving more consideration than men.

Tonight

Tonight like the night before
I will lay down in bed alone
With thoughts of you on my mind
Wondering if your head will ever rest again against my chest.
Tonight like many nights before
I will lay down alone
With thoughts of future battles
Being fought in my head
Tonight like the night before
I will lay down alone
With thoughts of my enemies wives
And promise that they will lay alone
While their husbands lie with me in death.

I am told

I am told, "we must enjoy life while we can."

I ask, what of those who never enjoyed life?

I am told "you do not understand conditions"

I say people can overcome conditions

I am told "The time is not right"

I ask what is the right time?

I am told "why don't you write an article"

I say "It's all been said"

I am told "Why doesn't somebody do something"

I ask "why don't you?"

Freedom

Freedom or Death
What will it be?
The choice is yours
To exist in a cage
Is not living
Humiliation and degradation
Strangle the spirit
So it rebels
Struggling for freedom
Escape is always possible
So is death
For the prisoner.
They bought mean freedom.

Question

Have you wondered
What is the purpose of life
Why some suffer
Some enjoy life
And others seem not to care
Is it fate or chance
That determines how we do
Or a plan beyond our scope of vision?

Things on my mind

My soul heard a cry from other souls
My eyes saw their misery
And their curses and cries filled my ears
My heart was heavy with sadness.
How is the weather outside
I can't tell from my tomb
Does the sun shine in the day
Do the stars and moon come out at night?
If my questions sound silly
It is because my condition is ridiculous
You see I went in search of freedom
On the dark streets of the city
To find myself shot but not dead
Buried while so much alive
In a concrete and steel tomb
Where the sun does not shine
And the moon and stars give no light.
So I ask questions about things like, are the people still oppressed and exploited
If so, why are people laughing
If not why am I buried alive in this tomb.
