As Salam Alaikum

Beloved Wife,

I pray each day + wish that Allah watch's over you the widows + orphans and all righteous people. Inshallah you should have given birth to a beautiful healthy child. My spirit's go up & down yet faith is my strong point. At moments when I can reflect objectively I realize or recognize the wisdom & mercy of Allah. The difficulties that have befallen us are preparations for the hard times to come. Within us will be the knowledge that we have the strength and faith to give in and work towards solutions, that these will overcome flesh-hood. Those who live for today and get busy in the material world will find it has only prepared them for suffering and destruction. To play on people and be indifferent may seem like it's cool because others are doing it but in the end they'll find themselves alone with no friend or protection. Trust in Allah for the situation you have gone through and survived, will soon befall many who believe in nothing but what they possess.

I can understand your bitterness and loneliness, they do not seem foolish nor do I wonder at them. Everything you've gone through and going through except for having a baby and having two children to take for I have experienced. Once he told you it was lonely and you thought it was cutting myself off from you but it too need to be crossed someone is here, to feel their touch and hold them. I am not a perfect man or perfect lover, I have weaknesses, feel hurt and pain like any other human being, neither do I know the answer to all things but I must such challenge and try to deal with it. I will not turn my back on you or any comrade and will use all my will to help and understand, if at times it appears foolish or say foolish things it is because of things not known to me. I am writing this because lately people have become shocked at things I say, you're not the only one who wonders about me at times but no one understands why. I do not like to hurt people because I don't like being hurt, I love so much and feel so deep about people & things it becomes almost unbearable to see them suffer yet somehow things get done, we learn & hopefully we grow, may it please Allah. I am glad your situation has improved and that the comrades are alright. It's important you get abreast of the food situation for the impact of it will bring about a dangerous situation and we must be prepared to meet it. The comrades & I have resolved some internal contradictions and it's good for all of us. Inshallah one day we too may get a chance to sit and resolve the contradictions between us. Believe me, I would like nothing better because I love you.

How are Nick & Suhail missing them, are they well. Have you seen them lately? Tell them I send my love, we are off into a rap about things people call petty and how it may not be petty to someone else. Everyone's spirit's are good and they send you their love. In your last two letters you said "I'll see you soon," it's a bet. I am man enough to deal with problems yours, mine, ours, to act otherwise is to betray a trust and faith, you take care and give my revolutionary love to the Comrades. That's about what's happening with me at the moment struggling with myself & Comrades to make me a better person and to understand myself & them better along with you so we all may become better people in a better world.

May the peace & blessing of Allah be upon you & the Comrades & Children. Keep your chin up Soldier.

With love in Struggle
your husband

I'm getting to know myself in find that is our not such a bad feat so would like to get better acquainted with myself in knowing you in find that is would like to know you better and would find spending the rest of our day's doing this a most pleasurable thing.

Talked with the sister and she said she see what can be done

Got to split here a date with someone in haven't picked up for awhile, if you're not to busy after 12 at night i'd like to drop in on you.

My leg has been bothering me and it was X-rayed Monday it's swollen at the knee so far they say the X-ray is not developed and the lawyer is getting a doctor from outside by Court order to look at it
