

Bismillah-in Rahman-in Raheem,
Peace Comrade,

Hoping these lines finds you in the presence of Allah's mercy. In teaching you truth, I had to learn wisdom, patience, and understanding, nothing comes without struggle (Tibaid). My attitude of late has not been a good one, which created a deep division between us, for me it was necessary to see things within myself that needed to come out to cleanse my soul, my intent was never malicious but only seeking truth, the method I used was wrong & for that I apologize. Now that this trial is over I feel less tense, many things that troubled me are now known to me, Alhamdulillah. To be blind of those around you is the greatest of sorrows, which leads to many mistakes. The struggle for Black Liberation is a struggle for the liberation of the spirit, those who follow Shuyton, be they Black, white, Brown, Red or Yellow are enemies, regardless of their politics. A better world can only come from a people devoid of the world, greed, lust, deceit, jealousy, and pettyness. To fight these things in other's one must first fight and recognize them in themselves. So for me this was a necessary part of my spiritual development. There is no bitterness towards you, the brother, what Allah has decreed no man can change, so one of faith should trust in His creator. Man is vain therefore refuses to acknowledge his mistakes, he lies to cover them rather than be truthful with himself. You should see some of the shit that's come out during this second trial. A lot of the problems that confronted me, I discover answers to. You were the key which unlocked the door where truth was hidden. By that I mean as a woman and our relationship, the things you did for me was an example to view other women, Jeque & Kimba by. A man reflects only the light from the sun and the light from the moon can only brighten a dead or developing body. I speak like this because I feel you can understand. We go back for sentencing on the 8th or 12th of May. Wednesday we went to court in the Bronx for 1st degree escape, assault (2) counts and some other meatball charge, so that we return on May 6th.

Shakuba wrote an analysis on the Black Liberation Movement that we are having copies printed up so will get you a copy soon as possible. Sent a brother to pick up two pieces on a Sunday so he waited until a Friday night and got busted. He was suppose to move on getting a comrade out that Saturday, so we had to put off a few things that will (Inshallah) taken care of now that we liberated him Monday. If it's Allah's will I'll get out, I'll be trying always. Enclosed is something Harold wrote up, it's pretty good, even among the confusion there are moments of clarity, seek always the truth and reject the false, be watchful of those from different cultural backgrounds but don't be prejudice. Many contradictions stem from the cultural differences which we may think to be something else.

Allah has blessed you with a beautiful woman/child and two sons and in my heart I find no fault in that, only ignorance makes the beauty of the world seem dirty. Neither do I find fault in you or the brother, given the same set of circumstances I doubt my conduct would have been different. Talked to Nuh last week he's really coming along with his schooling & Islam, such a beautiful warrior with lots of love in his heart. Owa must maintain a strong faith, it's not enough to say you have faith for Allah will test your words by trying you with adversity. How you deal with it determines whether you have faith or curse Allah. I am thankful for the blessing of our Lord.

This letter cannot take away the pain I caused you nor is it a plea for forgiveness but only to tell you of the truth I discovered in my madness. You see I have never stopped loving you, my frustration has caused me to strike out, the process of growth is not always smooth and easy. As for you I pray Allah has been merciful and lightens the burden of dealing with this type of food. Listen I got alot to do in a short time, like hooking up our communication's network so that propaganda can be gotten out and comrades inside will have better access to those outside. Still have use for that piece, now that the brother's back on the ground he can tighten up the areas that needed to be worked on.

Yesterday Harold was killed four years ago now Ranf is locked next door to me with bullet holes in his body, he's the only survivor. He's a good comrade, I thank Allah for him being here, someone to talk to about what this struggle is about. Very few know. Take care of yourself and continue to struggle, hope the children are healthy.

With Revolutionary Love
Nah

Where your thoughts are, there your energy goes. Your energy belongs to you, and to no one else. Keep it within yourself.

If you give your thoughts to confusion it's what you'll gain, see only the goal and not become distracted <sup>by</sup> things around you, which is not to pretend things do not exist, only the power they possess is what you give it. May Allah bless you with understanding.

Talked with Changgo, Shan, & Rena tonight, it felt good, everyone's spirits seem high, all the comrades got a chance to say something, also saw the probation people today; think they'll give it to me - ha ha.

B.J.'s trial started and ended Wednesday plus she was sentenced to 40 years, I don't like the sister personally but still she is a comrade and doesn't deserve that.

Hear that my mail is checked before you get it, is that your wish? I don't mind sharing general views with comrades but some things are between, you & i. If it is not your instructions to open & read mail between us just keep it quiet, no need to raise anymore contradictions until the more important matters are dealt with. The information here is for your eye's only.

4/24- Still haven't had a chance to send this out, we're convicted and the lawyer's want to get away for awhile but C. said they should be out in a day or so. Been thinking of you lately in a positive vain. Been reading African history, it's interesting. Did'nt get a chance to call Tahar last week but wrote Nick. You know the enemy is watching folk in the city and i want to find out if any visitors have showed up out there since summer is coming, you might be thinking of letting blood stay with you for awhile, so have someone check and see if the dog's have sniffed around out that way before you bring him back. Ain't much on my mind these day's but getting things straight out so everyone is going in the same direction. Don't know how long i'll be here or where they'll send me, my mind is at ease with the trial over, really sorrow about the changes i put you through, i pray Allah gives you understanding on what i was trying to say it may seem unimportant or petty but it's what the struggle is really about; the spiritual & moral development of man, the war against God & the Devil. With Allah's help it be good to myself and you do the same. Read Sura 52 and 77.

~~La illaha illallah~~
La illaha illallah