

Nūh's Pray

Bismillah-ir-Rahman-ir-Raheem

O'Allah, creator and master of the worlds, Thou has made the joy of mine heart in Malika. Protect and guide her that she may continue to be a source of light for those who stumble in darkness and a mirror that reflects the beauty of thy world. May she eat of the fruit of thy promise in this world and the next. O'Allah in thy mercy be merciful to Malika that NEVER again she fall in the hands of the unjust people or be separated from her sons NOR ask the unbelievers for sustenance. May her pray's not go unheeded and may she NEVER doubt your mercy and GRACE.

I

For your birthday
I would like to apologize
For the pain I've caused you
And the suffering of this world
Or being here in this jail.

II

For your birthday
I would like to give you
The things your heart desires
Take you on a trip around the world
Or just hold you in my arms.

III

For your birthday
I would like to sing you,
A song of love
Dance with you across heaven,
Or just lay near you.

IV

For your birthday
I wish you many more,
Sunny days and peaceful nights, rain to wash away troubles
Or a glass of water when you
Thirst.

V

For your birthday - I would like to touch your soul mingle with it, bridge the gap from here to there with you,
For your birthday and always.

(What you may No)

You must walk the way of man,
So that you may suffer and know pain
That you may gain understanding
You must experience hate and deceit
That you may know truth
Your very soul must become vengeful
That you may learn Compassion
You must know loneliness in heart
That you may know love
You must fall now and then
So you always remain humble.

With Daqum Latif Al-Muhtajin

BBP ARCHIVE Collection
noentol amda avreth
1971A 1511310