As Salam Alaikum

Beloved Wife,

Having read your letters that took me a month to receive, I understand your bitterness. That is the reason I had not addressed myself to solutions, not your bitterness but misinformation. I was given the impression all was well with you, people were looking up a place back in Ken then were told everything was cool. I've been told, everything was alright with Sule + Nih, and so many other things like Chico + Binnie were out. You say you feel what happens to Nih + Sule your responsibility well I feel all of you are mine. From rapping with the children I know how much they missed + needed you, Sule wanted to come live with me in jail. You say what you really need is a friend and I do that to be true for no one would come down and tell me what was really happening with you, they can't feel the pain or whatever the excuse. At this moment our views probably do not differ as much as you think, my faith in people has diminished a great deal, there was a time I wouldn't want to live in a world were people didn't care but I won't just go away leaving them to smile at our misery. If you wonder about me at times for the things I said, remember it was out of love for you + the children, that at least you would be taken care of forgive my ignorance in thinking that you would be happy.

Tuesday the 6th I will get a visit from a sister who might be able to help us, if she can she will, she's been to see Herman, Michael, + Harold, takes care of business.

with no excuses. She also helped Joanne out before she was busted. Getting moved to the rock kept me from contacting her sooner. Her name is Martha Pitts, her number is 407-852- she drives a car and can get things done, doesn't think to much of the revolutionary set because they're full of shits, was also involved in civil rights movement. Hadle you thought about getting in touch with Diane, she had asked me about you right after that thing went down her # is 426-1183, she might be helpful with the baby or something else. I was thinking about getting in touch with her on the quiet side since this place is not to far and if it should come up on her side of the river it would be cool.

Found out from the lawyer your sister got her case put off until sept and by then she'll be moving. She had went to Indiana to check out what was happening with Bedrian, the wigga could take her and it would be easier for them put those prides keep's things mixed up so now they got it together.

Sula + Nick need your attention and since you were separated from them by fighting and acting like little children, wetting the bed, they hope to seek it. Nick wasn't wetting the bed with her or at that sister's house, he looked after Sula, they watched out for each other. Sula also knows his age. That's their way of getting you to keep them. That's one of the reasons i wanted to hook it up so y'all could be together because of peoples insensitivity to these needs, also people lie to them. Tell them you love them and that there's no reason for them to act like they do. I guess Nick feels he must compete for your love + attention. Sula had asked Nick if he thought his mommy was crying for him. The day we spoke on the phone, your birthday, you had said you thought i was better and hoped your sister was saying all of negative things to me, she use to say things that fucked with me, then tell me she liked messing with my head. I too give alot of thought to things you said because it help's me in understanding how ignorant i was to alot of things, you use to tell me about people and how they were, you knew so much but i couldnt see it. I will not stop struggling but you + the children will come first, no longer can i count on people doing right for my love one's, so i will provide for you + the children. There is much hate in me for the idiot and callous attitudes people have shown, i mean so-called revolutionaries. They not people but parasites who live off of others. Remember i use to ask you why people were laughing, cause i always had the feeling they were laughing at me, i told you once in a moment of bitterness that people thought i was a chump and you told me, no one thinks that. Well after seeing them up-close and what they're into what do you think now. If i can't give you solutions right off and ask you to hold on it is because solutions still lie with the people, my spirit gets down at times but fakes, phony and bullshit artist will not break me and i pray to Allah that they don't break you. You said we are in this together and i have never seen it no other way. We'll have to find other people to handle our mail so that i can respond to your problem quick as possible. It burned the shit out of me, getting a letter dated the 5th + 14th of July on the 30th, when the issues involved were priorities.

 My ways of expressing my love may fuck with you at times it is the pain i feel for not being able to do for you. It bothers me to think that your love for me may be the cause of your destruction, spiritual. That does not mean i don't want to hear what's happening with you good or bad. The sister sent me a message that the problem with money for the children was taken care of yet the place for you to stay was suppose to be taken care of also. People are only interested in appearances and don't look off into the depths, so i'll get on that sister this Tuesday and then see what's happening. Anytime after Tuesday give her a call, tell her your name is Keele.
 Only you, me, and her will know that. Then ask if she is able to help, then you + her can work out how to hook up. Keep it light on the phone and i'll run it on her what we want so that way it won't have to be mentioned. A place that's cool for you + the children to stay for as long as necessary without worrying about food and things with bullshit on their minds.

That snake told Tracy she had seen you + Tracy told Ciss so i went out to see her before Ciss told me that i wasn't going to go. When i found out it was a lie i told her to get out. No one wants to kill that bitch but i will, her and a few other people who have made this a living hell for us. A liar is worst than a rat. A while back i felt your ribs and they were good i guess i still feel them even the bitterness. Rumors will not bother me what does is the way it has to be because of no one else coming forward to aid you only sitting back and Condemning.

 Our love is real and they must destroy it. We had moments when things were said that hurt and i guess at times let them they stand out and you wonder if it was worth the pain + suffering. You said it no one really understands our love and i seem things that lead me to believe people are working to do just that not because they're your friends but because you show up their weaknesses. In a letter you told me last August that were either crazy or other's are faking, well they're faking.
 The things you've done for your man has made sister's feel small. You mention a sister who was in love with another woman but never told me who she was but i no who that person is. You are my eyes + ears in the world outside, everything you tell me i go over it until i understand. Well thing you said in the letter dated the 5th was not having a real friend out there, well i am glad that you no that for you can deal with things a little better knowing the truth.
 You are under constant attack and need not win but just survive, that in itself is a victory. Teach Nick + Julie the truth but also teach them to be prudent, watchful. This is August 10th + 2nd so i guess they now you had the baby. Got a message someone has something for me + will give it to that chad He suppose to come back today or tomorrow. In any you might feel i am unresponsive to your plight giving your words on paper without nothing else but that is not really the case just a break down in communication. Got some equipment to make this move with have to wear out a few things and figure how to cut down the time. If the stuff i want is got to me it will cut alot of time off figure in about three weeks, got to deal with two dog's, which we can do, i've got to make it this time. The reason i want you to call the sister is because i've asked other's to do that before and they would say that it was taken care of and now i don't even no if it was mention to you from what you ran down. Fike i said it'll be cool for you to call use the same Rowlie that way no third party can misinterpret or say what's good for you. The Koran say's "you have no friend but Allah or protector" A good reason to believe is by looking at your situation is truth is being manifested to you about how people really are. One wife your sister told me she had called Nicky and told him to read "The Constellation," rather it slipped out and she said it had nothing to do with me, i couldn't find it myself but somehow i felt it was for you she had told him that and therefore it had something to do with me. It seems no one wants to tell me what it is. Beware of people who laugh when they talk with you, when nothing funny is being said. I use to ask your sister about the children, she'd say they're alright, i told her if she needed stuff i would put pressure on people, i got the leeches on the case to help her with that leech and the trouble with him started before

Nick + Julie arrived, she works with the landlady old lady & they made an arrangement of some kind before she moved in to help them pay off the mortgage with the rent and they know welfare would take care of it so after they got what they wanted she was crossed.

I once told you the only stable environment for the warriors was within you, and that you got regardless of the circumstances. Listen, evaluate, and act. It appears the stickers are getting over but Huey was busted on a vice charge in Calif. that carries 15 years. Because of racism Digger will never be able to get over big because they can't buy it off, check out the charges Nelly Barnes had to go through to get out on bail. All these people who have turned their backs on you and so many other's will find the road they are traveling leading no where. We get back on the right path by faith in the ability of man to rise above his/her condition. You cannot avoid stepping in the mud, walk through it and don't wallow in it.

In two weeks we'll be married a year and it came to mind something of our wedding vow's, forsaken all other's well that's what it'll be you + the children first without bending principles. Let me lie down for a while, Ciro's mother has a dog named Jaeger. Take care + we'll make it. I love you your husband
