Hello Malika,

How are you doing?
You are worth a spanking for taking so long to answering my letter.

I forgive you. Thank you for the poem you sent me it sound very good.

I can see that you are very busy.

I should be in the States by now, but was getting delay, I think I will be there soon if the banks allowed me to.

I love to write stories and poems myself if and when I come to the States I will might be able to do some business together. I am brilliant in short stories and mediocre in poems.

Please write to me soon so you can know further about my coming to the States.

Say hello to your friends for me. I will let you know what I am doing

From you
Friend
