Desert Comrade,

Your Criticism is valid, especially dealing with speaking without investigation. As for trying to destroy or cheapen you, conscientiously that is not my intention. Attack ^{in something} i do it's something that has been with me that i try and deal with. This was the first i heard about Bisomi and Chico getting time. My situation is tense, internal contradiction's, and slipshodness, this is not an excuse just a fact, how uptight i get is expressed in my letters. A dude was asked to get some information which would've been no problem to him, he refused behind some bullshit reason. Other things have come up and to be honest i really wonder about folks, maybe i requires more understand on my part.

I won't get off into the slow down in letters because you have one set of facts & me another so the best thing is to stress on your end & i'll do the same on mine. It's good that you feel the way you do and don't let anyone attack you. I guess by reading my letters that you'd never believe how much faith & trust i have in you, i know everyone tries and i really don't fault that but because i want out of here when things get slowed down and my time grows shorter by the day it doesn't make me very understanding. As far as considering you my wife i still do. You alone have come through when nobody else would. That thing about the sister was not directed at you personally, some deep shit has jumped off which i will forward to you in relation to man-women matter's and it was by looking at us that made me see it wasn't the women who was doing this but the man. All i say is that it's close to home. I wasn't being sarcastic about Calif. just stating a fact, about being unprincipled that too is probably true if i refuse to engage in a struggle. I will make arrangements for contact between you & the other teams. How do you like what's been happening with the phone company? that's another thing we've been into. This weekend I, k-w-e-l we'll get Fred from the Bx. Again when i say people are frustrating me i don't mean person (yo) but people, more than one. The powder wasn't used because i had a substitute. I am writing this in court since we won't be back until the 24th of mar.

There is much strength in your writing's which is very good and it's right for you to stand up in respect that. I was told Beni & Chico had gotten out on bail last summer, Got a letter from Red today he's on Ricker's Island in the hospital, Edlynn Williams (Carson's aunt & lawyer) had blocked our last meeting but that's too straighten out. The picture's got stepped on by the pigs, i always carry them with me, as for Nik's picture i study it. Some thing came up in court which got me a tight two day's ago; i am faced with people vacillating, just as you do now i have many fucked up way's about me, so do other's people seem to put on a higher plane. It has been my memories of you in some of these difficult times that has given me a few minutes of peace. I do not speak bad about you to comrades or anyone for that matter, in fact i speak of you only in the highest regard, so don't put me off into a B. J. bag as for her she ran off at the month i had sent you a newspaper clipping on her bust but i guess you didn't get it. Since you received my message and will act upon the request, i have everything i need. Once before in T1 i wanted you to have something to fall back on now you have your own inner strength. I have only read your letter once and in hurry so if i don't go further into the issues you raised that's the reason. Andrew Jackson has wrote me which i sent to you, will put on your message's to other comrades. I knew you'd come through what i did'nt find was you had'nt received the message. I really appreciate your criticism, i miss talking to you, My love to Sub & Lil M & the other comrades. This should be it this time one way or the other. People will be instructed to make the necessary hook-up's with the other teams regardless of the outcome since it'll be on us here to do it, i like it like this. I am a angry man but then i have a reason to be which has nothing to do with you personally. I trust very few & you are among that few now you are part of people that's another reason this had to be like it is, to find the truth it gets very painful but it's better than something else. Take care of yourself.
