Dear Friend and Comrade,

I don't know how long I'll be able to refer to you as the above. Last night you ask me to do something that principally I cannot do. I have slept on the things we discuss and I don't feel within my heart that I've gossip about you or anyone else. I have as I stated before discuss issues that I was concerned about with you first and then with other family members. At your request I will refrain from interfering with what you do about your personal life but if you value our friendship if you truly believe in the Creator, the spirit, please don't ask me to lie or cover up for what I believe to be incorrect. As I stated I will not interfere in your personal life, it is truly your business.

I want you and all parties concerned to know that I cannot find it in my heart that I've tried to bring harm to anyone I know as well as the creations (whom I believe in most) know that my struggle with people, (you now, your family members Abdul) has been out of love and concern for our struggle and what we're supposed to be about. If you or anyone else want to isolate me from work because I take what I consider to be ^{correct} ~~correct~~ positions, because I struggle against Wrong doing, that's fine with me. But please whatever you do if you're the principle person you say that you are please come to me from here - to - forth and tell me you don't want to be bother or whatever.

I will put more work into the clinic, I'll always work, I'm constantly working in the community whether it is recognized by you all or not I know and Allah knows. I will at the same time maintain my sanity I will not become like that sister that's in the hospital. Allah knows that at some point you all have to take the responsible for what has happen to that sister. Against it's the old cover up. Nobody want to admit to their wrong doings ever though it has cause a sister, a mother of one of our children, her sanity and possibly her life. We have to see these things for what they are and not go on trying to cover them up.

Historically I have struggle against corruption within our ranks, I've not been liked very much by many comrades especially those that had something to hide and want to continue in their wrong doings. So this is nothing new to me. My concern right now is how far will people go to protect their wrong doings.

(in the past) Before me and other comrades had to watch our backs because we become a threat to the wrong doers. This is is my concern now. My life is of value.

It is of too greater value for me to allow anyone to destroy it and I know these things happen I'm a witness to that and the sister in the hospital is an example of that. She didn't ask for her condition some very sick minds created her conditions. But as requested I will mind my business. The truth shall always triumph over falsehood. I will continue to pray to Allah for all of us
He is the Best of knowers.

Through Honest Struggle we shall win

Peace & Love
Malika

P.S. I can't not be bought off and I can't close my eyes to wrongs.
