Dear King:

I have learned of the recent bombing of your home. Although I am sorry about the mishap, I feel the incident, because of the fine way in which you handled the situation, might have favorable repercussions for our struggle throughout the nation.

I think that Mrs. King, as well as your self and others in the city of Montgomery, should be congratulated for your stand.

I am praying that you will have continued success in your efforts to bring the boycott to a successful and worthy conclusion.

Sincerely yours,

DWW:ml
