REVEREND MARCEL KELLAR, Pastor

*When sorrow comes, as come it must
In God we must put our trust
We feel, as we extend our hands
That one power only understands
And truly knows the reason why
A great and useful life must die
We realize how helpless then
Are all the gifts of mortal men
No words which we have power to say
Can take the sting of grief away
Power which marks the sparrow's fall
Must comfort and sustain us all
And only those of us may stand serene
Who have a faith on which to lean.*
